

I disagree with recent changes in the existing laws regulating ownership by corporations of multiple media sources in the same city. I feel this will lead to biased coverage of the news. The citizens of this country who wish to stay informed will suffer for these deregulations. I feel that these changes will benefit only large corporations.